By His EXCELLENCY

HORATIO SHARPE, Esq;

Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING.

WHEREAS Our Most Gracious Sovereign, Judging it proper that a PUBLIC THANKSGIVING to Almighty GOD, should be observed by all His good Subjects, throughout His extensive Dominions, for the Blessings of PEACE, between Great-Britain, France and Spain, lately restored, hath caused His Pleasure to be signified to me, by a Letter from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations: In Obedience therefore to His Majesty's Commands, and that all His Loyal and Good Subjects within this Province, may have an Opportunity of expressing, in a Public and Solemn Manner, their Thankfulness for the happy Conclusion of PEACE, between His Majesty Our Most Gracious Sovereign, and the Most Christian and Catholic Kings, and of Adoring with humble and grateful Hearts, the Divine Goodness which hath Wars to cease:

I DO, by the Advice of His Lordship's Council of State, appoint Tuesday the Twenty-ninth Day of August next, to be set apart, and Observed throughout this Province, as a Day of Public PRAISE and THANKSGIVING; and I do hereby recommend it to the several Ministers of the Gospel within this Province, to prepare proper Addresses to the Divine Majesty, to be used in their respective Churches and Chapels on that Day, and likewise Sermons suitable to the Occasion; and I moreover require all such Ministers to Publish this my Proclamation in their several Congregations during the Time of Divine Service, on the Sunday next preceding the said Day of Thanksgiving.

HORº. SHARPE.

J. ROSS, Cl. Con.

GOD Save the KING.

CADIZ, April 25.

THEY write from Gibraltar, that some Difference has arisen between the English and the King of Morocco, and that the English Consul in Barbary had precipitately left Tetuan, the Place of his usual Residence. It is said that the Ground of these Broils, is a Complaint made by Admiral Saubders to his Britanic Majesty, of the little Respect paid by the Moors to the English Flag, and their refusing to supply Gibraltar with Provisions under double Price.

Amsterdam, April 29. The different Colleges of the Admiralty seem to be busy in taking all necessary Precautions to put our Marine in a Condition to protect our Trade, in Case, as there is room to Fear, we should come to an open Rupture with the Algerines.

The College of the Admiralty of Amsterdam have come to a Resolution to sheath their Ships, bound to the West-Indies, with Copper and Brass. It is said that this Hint was taken from King James II. of England, who understood naval Affairs very well. That the English taken this Method of Sheathing, they would have saved those Ships which, in Consequence of their being eat by the Worms, were either lost or much damaged, in their Return from the Havannah.

Leghorn, April 16. A Genoese Privateer took out of a Neutral Vessel a famous Corsican Sea Captain, and sent him to Bastia, where, it is said, he was hanged. In return for which General Paoli made three Genoese Gentlemen, who were his Prisoners, draw Lots, and he on whom the Lot fell was put to Death.

Aleppo, March 1. The Bashaw of this City having some Time ago disbanded 400 Men of his Cavalry, these Fellows, being destitute of Employment and Resources, ranged about the Country, and committed Outrages of every Kind; and this City was so terrified by them, that the Inhabitants durst not venture out of the Gates. One of their Exploits was in a Village at Spanish, at the Entrance of a Desart six Leagues from this City, where they massacred all the Men, ravished the Females, set Fire to the Place, and then crept to burn another adjacent Village. The Bashaw being sensible that nothing but Force could put a Stop to their Proceedings, he sent a Body of Troops against them, headed by the Kiaya, who was seconded by several Agas. The Rioters had been joined by about 400 other Banditti, and fenced themselves in a Village within eight Leagues of this City. The Kiaya surrounded the Village; but the Mutineers sallied out, and fell so impetuously on the Kiaya's Troops, that they would certainly have routed them; if a Reinforcement of 150 Men had not opportunely arrived, who attacked the Rebels in Flank, and drove them back into the Village. The latter having spent all their Powder and Shot, were obliged to abandon their Post, and ran away in Disorder; only 36 of them could be seized, whom the Kiaya put to Death on the Spot, and their Heads were fixed upon Stakes before the Bashaw's House. It is said that the Rebels have fled into the Mountains of the Kurdes; but we are not yet quite easy about them, as there is room to fear they will return and ravage the open Country.

We have Advice from Bagdad, that Tranquility is actually restored there by the Defeat of Sulyman Bashaw of Karachelan, who had advanced with a Body of Ten or Twelve Thousand Men to within three Days March of Bagdad. The Bashaw of that City went out to meet him with a Force nearly equal, defeated him, and obliged him to fly to the Mountains for Safety.

LONDON, May 3.

We hear that the Directors [illegible] East-India Company have ordered the Payment of a certain Annuity of 57,000 l. to be stopt, till the Share of the Indemnifications granted by the Nabob to the Heirs of the unhappy Persons who perished in the Black Hole at Calcutta be accounted for; it is also said that the Trade of Country ships by that Nabob to the East India Company, proves much less valuable than was expected.

They write from Bayonne, that there arrived that Morning in the Harbour five Rafts or Floats of Masts, brought down the Grave (which has lately been rendered navigable for the Space of four and twenty leagues) from the Forest in the Valley of Aspe in Bearn, where those Trees have been felled, cut out into different Sorts of Ship-Timber, all which are to be successively brought down by this new Navigation. The five Floats above-mentioned, being the first that ever were brought this Way, were received in the Port [illegible] Discharge of the Cannon of the City and Citadel, amidst the Acclamations of all the Inhabitants.

On Thursday Evening the East India-House was finely illuminated on Account of the Thanksgiving Day for the Peace. A double Watch was placed to prevent any Mischief which might happen from the Crowds of People which assembled there to see it.

Letters from Berlin of the 23d ult. say, that his Prussian Majesty had had a Fit of the Gout upon him for some Days.

The Three great Objects of that King's Attention for the future (according to the same Letters) will be Agriculture, Commerce, and Population.

May 10. It is said, that on searching Precedents for many Years back, it does not appear that a Habeas Corpus was ever applied for in the Court of Common Pleas before this lately for Mr. Wilkes.

Col. Caleb and Col. Caldwell are arrived from the East Indies, and declare that the Company's Affairs there are in a more happier State than at the Time they came away.

Yesterday Night broke a grand Firework at Court, a Lamp in St. James's Chapel having been placed in the Room of a Pane of Glass, which had been taken out for the Occasion, and fell by accident into the Powder which had been prepared, and continued there during the Ceremony.

May 12. At Newcastle, on the Day of Thanksgiving for the Peace, a Fountain was erected that Day with Wine, from whence the King's Health was drank, after a regular Discharge of Fire-Arms, by a Company of the Scotch Fuzileers.

May 12. Letters from Amsterdam mention an Account received there from the East Indies, of the defeating some Dutch Troops on the Island of Ceylon, by which Force they have not only raised the Siege of Columbo, but obliged the King of Candia to take shelter in one of his own Fortresses in a Sally from which he was taken Prisoner; which Advantage they hoped would be followed by an entire Reduction of the whole Island.

May 19. It is reported, that a Bill of Indictment will be preferred to the Grand Jury this Sessions against Mr. Wilkes, and the other Parties supposed to be concerned in publishing the North-Briton of the 23d of April last.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Major General John Stanwix, to be Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Wight [in the room of the late Earl of Portsmouth.]

The Republic of Genoa continues to solicit for a Body of Austrian Forces to reduce the Corsicans; but it is imagined they will not succeed, as the Pope's Nuncio, by his Master's express Orders, opposes her Demand.

May 21. Every Englishman will hear with Pleasure of the Edict of the French King, that was carried to the Parliament on the 9th, which will give such a Blow to the Credit of France, by the King's arbitrarily declaring, that all Rents due by him should be redeemable at Twenty Years Purchase of their present Produce. This is exactly the same Thing as if the English Government, at the Time when they gave about Five per Cent for Money, be paid off with 60 l. for every 100 l. that they lent to the Public.

It is said, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Hardwick will shortly be appointed Lord President of the Council, in the Room of the late Earl Granville.

A Commission is passing the Seals for constituting and appointing their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of York and Cumberland, their Graces the Archbishop of Canterbury and York, the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, and his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Commissioners for carrying into Execution the original Plan for completing the Royal Hospital at Greenwich.

All the Cannon taken by the English Troops from the French during the Course of the War in Germany (some of which are very curious) have been embarked at Bremen for England.

NEW-LONDON, July 1.

By Capt. Brown late from the West-Indies, came Passenger Daniel Woodhouse of Wethersfield, who on his Passage, being aloft, and standing on the Gaff, the Vessel took a roll, at which Time his Leg accidentally slipt between the Gaff and the Mast, by which Means his Leg was directly broke; it being perceived by those below they advised him to Keep his Hold till they came to his Relief, but immediately falling into a Swoon he fell head foremost, and about to Feet before he came to the Deck one of his Arms struck in the Rattlings; by which Means he came on his Feet upon the Deck, and it is said the Stump of the Bone that was broke stuck so far into the Deck that they were obliged to cut it out. After 29 Days the Vessel arrived at this Place, when Application was immediately made to Dr. Marsh, who upon Examination found but only his Leg broke, but one Elbow much dislocated, which Mr. Marsh immediately reduced, and soon after proceeded to amputate the broken Limb, just below the Joint, all which was performed with surprising Dispatch and Activity, and 'tis said the Man is like soon to recover beyond the Expectation of the most sanguinest Solicitors.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.

Our Advices from Carlisle, are as follows, viz.

That the Party under the Sheriff, Mr. Dunning (mentioned in our last, fell in with the Enemy, at the House of one Alexander Logan, in Shearman's Valley, supposed to be about Fifteen, or upwards, who had murdered the said Logan, his Son, and another Man, about two Miles from said House, and mortally wounded a Fourth, who is since dead; and that at the Time of their being discovered they were sitting the House, and shooting down the Cattle, and, it is supposed, about to return home with the Spoil they had got.—That our Men, on seeing them, immediately spread themselves from Right to Left, with a Design to surround them, and engaged the Savages with great Courage, but from their Eagerness, rather too soon, as some of the Party had not got up when the Skirmish began: That the Enemy performed their first Fire very briskly; but our People, regardless of that, rushed upon them, when they fled, and were pursued a considerable Way, till Thickets favored their Escape, four or five of them, it was thought, being mortally wounded: That our Parties had brought in with them what Cattle they could collect, but that great Numbers were killed by the Indians, and many of the Horses, that were in the Valleys, carried off: That on the Twenty-first, in the Morning, News was brought of three Indians being [illegible] Miles from Shippensburgh: That on the Twenty-second, about Ten o'Clock in the Morning, one Plummer, and his Wife, and the Wife of one Johnston, were surprized in a House, between Shippensburgh and the North Mountain, and left there for dead; but that one of the Women, when found, having some Spark of Life, was brought to Shippensburgh, where she lived some Hours in a most miserable Condition, being scalped, one of her Arms broke, and her Skull cracked with the Stroke of a Tomahawk: And that, since the Twelfth Instant, there was an Addition of Forty-four Persons [illegible] by the Enemy.

There are seven Letters on Table, to which the Printer of the Pennsylvania Journal refers in a late number and Printer's Devil to the Letters are pretty much [illegible] Publick to answer to which the Public [illegible] Answers to the Subjects of some of them, as they are [illegible]

That the Indians had set Fire to Hunter's House, Hays, and, in short, to every Thing that was [illegible] to that the whole Country seemed to be in one general [illegible]

That the Miseries and Distresses of the poor People were really shocking to Humanity, and beyond the Power of Language to describe. That Carlisle was become the Barrier, not a single Inhabitant being beyond it. That every Stable and Hovel in the Town was crowded with miserable Refugees, who were reduced to a State of Beggary and Despair; their Houses, Cattle and Harvest destroyed; and from a plentiful, independent People, they were become real Objects of Charity and Commiseration. That it was most dismal to see the Streets filled with People, in whose Countenances might be discovered a Mixture of Grief, Madness and Despair; and to hear, now and then, the Sighs and Groans of Men; the disconsolate Lamentations of Women; and the Screams of Children, who had lost their nearest and dearest Relatives: And that on both Sides of the Susquehanna, for some Miles, the Woods were filled with poor Families, and their Cattle, who make Fires, and live like the Savages."

A Gentleman, from Carlisle, informs us, that in a Letter from Augusta County, in Virginia, dated the 18th Instant, it is said, That the Settlements of Green Briar, and Jackson's River, in that Colony, were cut off by the Indians, a few of the Inhabitants only escaping: And that in another Letter from Virginia, Mention was made of a prodigious Extent of Country being entirely evacuated by our People.

By Captain Hasleton, who left Martinico the 28th ult. we are informed, that the Night before he sailed, a Man of War Snow (but no Transports) arrived there from England, with Orders to deliver up that Place to the French; and that the English were to go to Dominico till Vessels should arrive, or others could be got, to carry them home.

And by Captain Patterson, from the Havannah, there is Advice, that that Place was delivered up to the Spaniards on the Sixth Instant.

ANNAPOLIS, August 4.

Monday last his Majesty's Proclamation of Peace, was published here by the Sheriff of the City. About XII o'Clock, his Excellency the Governor, attended by the Gentlemen of the Corporation, Magistrates, Clergy, Gentlemen of the Army, and Others, walk'd from his Excellency's House, to the Council House; and was receiv'd in the Parade by the City Militia, who made a handsome Appearance on the Occasion: After the Proclamation was Read, they went thro' their Firings, and the Great Guns were Discharged, the Loyal Healths Drank, &c. &c.

Tuesday last we had here a great deal of Thunder, both Forenoon and Afternoon, and very heavy Showers of Rain: In the Afternoon, for about a Minute, large Hail, or Pieces of Ice, fell with the Rain, by which some Windows in Town were broke; but as it did not fall very obliquely, we don't learn that much Damage was done by it in Town. Some of the Hail Stones which fell at the Printing-Office Door, measured upwards of an Inch and Three-quarters in Length.

On Saturday last one of the Ferrymen at Patapsco, as he was Rowing at the Bow Oar, (being somewhat Muddled) fell overboard and was Drowned.

WHEREAS sundry Bonds and Notes of Hand have been taken by Richard Whittle, Merchant, at Bladensburg, for Sums of Money and Tobacco due Edward Trafford and Sons, Merchants, in Liverpool, which Bonds and Notes the said Whittle hath fraudulently Indorsed to his Creditors, in Discharge of his own private Debts: This is therefore to forewarn every Person who may have any Bonds or Notes of Hand out, drawn payable to the said Edward Trafford and Sons, from paying any Regard to such Indorsement, as the said Whittle had not any Authority for so doing; by observing which, they may, in all Probability, save themselves a good deal of Trouble and Expence.
